Star Letters

Kit and Sam are watching some shooting stars. Can you say the right letter name before the star shoots by?

Revisit and Review

The family were heading out for the day to go to a friend's party. They were all dressed up in their smart clothes and Kit was holding a wrapped gift tied with a bow.

Suddenly, Mum had to stop the car because there was a cow in the road. “Oh, no!” said Kit. “We will have to wait until we can get past.”

"Sound the horn," said Dad, "then the cow will move out of the way." Mum gave the horn a little toot.

o and r are partners. They say or.

Action

Pretend to press a car horn.

Say 'or,
or, or'.

Write the Letters

Around the orange.
Down the robot's body and up and over its arm.

Play

Let's Sing!

(To the tune of 'Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary')

Oh, a cow stood in the way,
So, whatever shall we do?
Let's toot the horn,
or - or - or - or
We're hoping that will moo-ve!

The cow still did not move. "Don't worry," said Dad. "I'll sort it." He got out of the car and pushed open a nearby gate so the cow could get through. As he did, the cow zoomed past and pushed Dad over!

"Oh, well," said Dad as he got back in the car, "at least it worked."

"Yes," said Sam thoughtfully. "Why did the cow cross the road?"

"I don't know," said Kit.

"To mooooove to the other field," chuckled Sam and everyone laughed.
